

The Journo, The Shrink, & The Captain.

Join three Authors for the riveting exposé of their secret worlds at a famous address, with the most exclusive deck in Melbourne; known to crims and coppers as: The Fisho's Club.

The evening begins with finger food and drinks on the deck, then the ninety minute interview-style show, followed by a meet and greet. You'll be able to buy books too.

$5 from each ticket sale will be donated to Lisa Portman's Bushfire Hay (read more)

Adam Shand is a journalist with more than thirty years experience in television, radio, print and online media.

As a freelance reporter, he covered the rise to power of Nelson Mandela in South Africa, the aftermath of the genocide in Rwanda, and the corruption of Zimbabwe's democracy.

Since 1997 he has been an investigative reporter, including two years as Perth's top rating radio drive-time host. He presents true crime stories on Channel Nine television, has a successful podcast Adam Shand At Large and is the author of six books including Big Shots: Carl Williams and the Gangland Wars – the Inside Story, The Skull: Informers, Hit Men and Australia's Toughest Cop and The King of Thieves: The story of the Kangaroo Gang.

He is also a screenwriter adapting his books for movies and television.

Tim Watson-Munro is a Consultant Psychologist the media turns to when they have to make sense of the nonsensical. Having spent 40 years deciding if criminals are mad, bad or just sad, and staring into the eyes of serial killers; his fall from grace and resurrection has been phenomenal.

Formerly described as the psychologist to the gentry, Tim has assessed in excess of 20,000 criminals, including Australia's greatest corporate fraudster, the late Alan Bond. His other clients have included Julian Knight, the late President of the Comanchero Motorcycle Club Mick Hawi, and Australia's first convicted terrorist, Faheem Lodhi.

Tim was formerly the National Chairman of the College of Forensic Psychologists of the Australian Psychological Society, a Visiting Fellow at Melbourne University and an Adjunct Visiting Professor at Bond University. He remains in practice and has written two best selling books Dancing with Demons and A Shrink in the Clink, with a third book underway through his publisher Pan Macmillan Australia.
